Explanatory Note

The main object of these Rules is, for the purposes of the reporting obligation (the obligation to report specified OTC derivative transactions to the Monetary Authority (MA)) imposed on prescribed persons (licensed corporations (LC), authorized financial institutions (AFI), approved money brokers (AMB) and others) by section 101B of the Securities and Futures Ordinance (Cap. 571) (Ordinance) and the record keeping obligation (the obligation to keep records relating to specified OTC derivative transactions) imposed on prescribed persons by section 101E of the Ordinance, to specify—

- (a) the additional prescribed persons and the transactions that are subject to the obligations;
 - (b) the circumstances relating to the transactions in which the obligations apply to prescribed persons; and
 - (c) matters relating to compliance with the obligations.
2. Rule 2 sets out the definitions to be used in the Rules.
3. Rule 3 sets out when an LC, AFI or AMB is to be regarded as an exempt person in relation to a specified OTC derivative transaction within a product class. The exempt person status applies on a product class basis.
4. Rule 4 sets out when an LC, AFI or AMB is to be regarded as having conducted a specified OTC derivative transaction in Hong Kong on behalf of an affiliate.

5. Rules 5 and 6 specify certain persons acting in their capacity as central counterparties to be prescribed persons that are subject to the reporting and record keeping obligations.
6. Rules 7 and 8 specify the OTC derivative transactions that are subject to the reporting and record keeping obligations.

Rules relating to reporting obligation

7. Part 2 sets out the circumstances in which the reporting obligation arises (Division 1) and is taken to have been complied with (Division 2), the transaction information that a person must submit to the MA and procedural matters relating to the submission of the transaction information (Division 3).
8. Rule 9 provides that the reporting obligation arises when rule 10, 11, 12, 13, 14 or 15 first begins to apply to a prescribed person in relation to a specified OTC derivative transaction, and each time an event affecting that transaction (subsequent event) occurs.
9. Rules 10, 11, 12 and 13 require an LC, AFI or AMB to report the following specified OTC derivative transactions—
 - (a) the transactions to which it is a counterparty, including—
 - (i) transactions entered into before, but still outstanding on, the day on which the relevant product type is specified under rule 7, but excluding transactions in relation to which it is an exempt person;

- (ii) in the case of an AFI incorporated outside Hong Kong, all transactions recorded in the form of an entry in the books of a Hong Kong branch of the AFI, and certain transactions recorded in the form of an entry in the books of the AFI outside Hong Kong;

- 10. Rule 14 requires a recognized clearing house to report the specified OTC derivative transactions to which it is a counterparty when acting in its capacity as a central counterparty.
- 11. Rule 15 requires a person authorized to provide automated trading services to report the specified OTC derivative transactions to which it is a counterparty when acting in its capacity as a central counterparty and the other counterparty is a Hong Kong company.
- 12. Rule 16 applies the reporting obligation to the specified OTC derivative transactions where a counterparty is outside Hong Kong, or which were entered into outside Hong Kong.
- 13. Rules 17 and 18 provide that an LC, AFI or AMB is taken to have complied with its reporting obligation in relation to a specified OTC derivative transaction if the affiliate of it on whose behalf it conducted the transaction in Hong Kong has reported the entering into of the transaction or a subsequent event relating to the transaction.

Both periods apply on a product type basis, i.e. the concession period and the grace period differ in respect of each product type. The duration and commencement of the periods differ for each prescribed person depending on when the reporting obligation in respect of a particular product type first applies to that prescribed person.
15. Rule 20 requires a prescribed person that has a reporting obligation to submit transaction information to the MA in accordance with Division 3 of Part 2.
16. Rule 21 requires the transaction information to be submitted by means of the electronic reporting system operated by or on behalf of the MA, and in accordance with the directions and instructions for the use of the system published by the MA.
17. Rule 22 applies to prescribed persons that first have a reporting obligation within 6 months from the day on which the relevant product type is specified under rule 7. It requires the backloading of historical transactions (i.e. the reporting of the transactions entered into before, and still outstanding on, the first day of the relevant grace period) and the reporting of the transactions entered into during the concession period. In both cases, the transactions must be reported no later than the last day of the relevant grace period and only if the transactions are still outstanding on that day. An AFI that has submitted the transaction information for a specified OTC derivative transaction to the MA before the Rules commence (i.e. under the interim reporting requirement) is taken to have fulfilled the requirement on the commencement of the Rules.
