Financial Review of the Securities Industry

For the half year ended 30 June 2021

Executive Summary

In the first half of 2021, the total value of transactions and net securities commission income of all securities dealers and securities margin financiers¹ increased by 20% and 10%, respectively, compared to the previous six-month period. Average daily turnover on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (SEHK) was $188.2 billion², up 33% from the previous six months³. The Hang Seng Index closed at 28,828 on 30 June 2021, 6% higher than its close on 31 December 2020.

The net profits of all securities dealers and securities margin financiers totalled $36.3 billion, up 22% from the previous six-month period. The growth was mainly attributable to increases in net securities commission income and net profit on proprietary trading and lower total overhead and interest expenses.

The net profits of all SEHK participants totalled $17.7 billion in the first half of 2021, up 69% from the previous six-month period. Participants in Categories A, B and C reported total net profits of $4.8 billion, $8.3 billion and $4.6 billion, respectively. The total net profits of Category C participants increased by 416%, which was mainly attributable to lower total overhead and interest expenses.

At the end of June 2021, outstanding margin loans totalled $249.5 billion, 24% higher than the end of 2020. The 20 largest providers of securities margin financing collectively accounted for 80% of the industry's total outstanding margin loans. Average collateral coverage (as defined in remark 1a in Table 1) was 4.8 times at the end of June 2021.

Table 1 summarises the statistical information and financial highlights for securities dealers and securities margin financiers. Table 2 summarises the financial performance of each of the three categories of SEHK participants for the first half of 2021.
