ANNEX A3: Guidance on information to be contained in the Custodian Report

- Under the Securities and Futures Ordinance, the OFC custodian must take reasonable care, skill and diligence to ensure the safekeeping of the scheme property of the OFC that is entrusted to it. The Code on Open-ended Fund Companies (“OFC Code”) also sets out the specific duties of OFC custodians. Accordingly, custodians of OFC, including private OFCs, are expected to put in place adequate internal controls and systems to meet its duties under the applicable laws and regulations.
- The report on the Custodian’s internal controls and systems (the “Custodian Report” as referred to in Annex A1 and Annex A2) should describe the control environment of the custodian, and the policies and procedures of the custodian’s internal controls and systems that are designed to ensure compliance with the requirements of 7.3 and Appendix A of the OFC Code. The policies and procedures are expected to cover, at a minimum, each of the areas (“Control Attributes”) below.
- The following Control Attributes are basic requirements for the Custodian Report. The custodian should ensure, and the OFC should review and ensure it is satisfied that, the custodian’s internal controls and systems are commensurate with the nature, scale and complexity of the private OFC concerned and the custodial risks specific to the type and nature of assets in which the private OFC invests. In this connection, the directors should note their duty under the OFC Code to use reasonable care, skill and diligence to oversee the activities of the custodian as part of their overall duty to oversee the operations of the OFC.

Basic contents of a Control Report

(I) General

1. Maintenance of a control environment

- (a) Resources: possession of relevant knowledge, skills, qualifications, experiences, resources and operational capabilities commensurate with the OFC’s nature, scale, complexity and underlying investments.
- (b) Procedures: appropriate procedures (subject to regular and frequent review and update) for acting as the custodian of the OFC, including ongoing monitoring on third parties.
- (c) Corporate governance: a corporate governance framework for its operation as a custodian, with timely escalation to and involvement of senior management on issues that may lead to breaches.
- (d) Risk management: a risk management framework; identification, monitoring and control of relevant risks for acting as an OFC custodian, with supervision from senior management.
- (e) Business continuity plan (“BCP”): a BCP with regular testing of effectiveness and subject to ongoing review, with timely reporting to senior management on material exceptions.

2. Compliance with legal and regulatory requirements

- (a) Compliance function and review: establishment of a compliance programme and policies (with periodic review) approved by the management for the obligations under the applicable laws and regulations; and ensuring sufficient and adequate compliance resources.
- (b) Breach reporting: procedures for identifying breaches; formation and monitoring of rectification plans; and reporting to senior management, the OFC and regulatory bodies.

(II) Appointment and oversight on third parties relevant for the custodian’s discharge of obligations

- (a) Due diligence: selection and due diligence of third parties engaged, including an assessment on their competency, regulatory and financial status, and capabilities in discharging their delegated function(s)/operation(s) and their internal controls and systems, covering the respective matters provided in this Annex with respect to the relevant delegated function(s)/operations(s) by the custodian.
