PUBLIC CONSULTATION

Consultation process

4. In addition to the public announcement inviting comments, the Consultation Document was distributed to all registered persons, various professional bodies and the Financial Services Bureau. The Consultation Document was also published on the SFC website.

5. Sessions were held with industry participants and their legal advisors during the consultation period to discuss their comments.

6. 14 submissions were received from practitioners including fund management firms, international brokerage firms, legal firms, industry representative bodies, professional associations and industry regulators. One submission was the survey result of its members conducted by the Hong Kong Securities Institute.

7. The overall tone of the comments was positive. Commentators generally welcomed the proposed rules. Comments varied considerably in range and depth, with some focusing on broad principles and others on points of detail and clarification.
Consultation conclusion

8. No change has been made to the original draft Rules set out in the Consultation Document.

SUMMARY OF COMMENTS AND SFC'S RESPONSES
