

Overall, we support the initiatives in this consultation paper. It makes sense to go online with respect to publication of NAV and notice. We expect the SFC would provide clear written guidance as to the procedure to follow e.g. whether shareholder notice is necessary if we change the means of publication.