

Please find my comments as follows: 1) If the Commission restricts the broker industry to use "independence" to describe the intermediary, it will certainly affect the current positioning of the industry. 2) Does the Commission require the disclosure of rebate between fund houses and broker to the client?