30. Shares may be transferred by a written instrument of transfer signed by the transferor and containing the name and address of the transferee and, in the case of the transfer of a Share that imposes a liability to the Company on the transferee, the instrument of transfer shall also be signed by the transferee.

37. Any person who has become entitled to a Share or Shares in consequence of the death, incompetence or bankruptcy of any Shareholder may, instead of being registered himself, request in writing that some person to be named by him be registered as the transferee of each Share or Shares and such request shall likewise be treated as if it were a transfer.

The consent may be in the form of counterparts in like form each counterpart being signed by one or more Shareholders.
65. If the Company shall have only one Shareholder the provisions herein contained for meetings of the Shareholders shall not apply and in lieu of minutes of a meeting shall record in writing and sign a note or memorandum of all matters requiring a Resolution of Shareholders. All cheques, promissory notes, drafts, bills of exchange and other negotiable instruments and all receipts for monies paid to the Company, shall be signed, drawn, accepted, endorsed or otherwise executed, as the case may be, in such manner as shall from time to time be determined by Resolution of Directors.
87. The Directors may from time to time and at any time by power of attorney appoint any company, firm or person or body of persons whether appointed directly or indirectly by the Directors, to be the attorney or attorneys of the Company for such purposes and with such powers, authorities and discretions (not exceeding those vested in or exercisable by the Directors under these Articles) and for such period and subject to such conditions as they may think fit and any such power of attorney may contain such provisions for the protection and convenience of persons dealing with such attorney or attorneys as the Directors may think fit and may also authorise any such attorney or attorneys to delegate all or any powers, authorities and discretions vested in them.

88. For the purposes of Section 175 of the Act (Disposition of assets), the Directors have the power to sell, transfer, lease, exchange or otherwise dispose of the assets of the Company, without restriction and without complying with the provisions of section 175.

DUTIES OF DIRECTORS

89. Subject to this Regulation, the Directors when exercising their powers or performing their duties, shall act honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interests of the Company.
90. Notwithstanding the foregoing:
- (a) where the Company is a wholly owned subsidiary, the Directors may, when exercising their powers or performing their duties, act in a manner which they believe to be in the best interest of the Company's holding company, even though it may not be in the best interests of the Company;
 - (b) where the Company is a subsidiary, but not a wholly owned subsidiary, the Directors may, when exercising their powers or performing their duties, and with the prior agreement of the shareholders other than the holding company, act in a manner which they believe to be in the best interest of the Company's holding company, even though it may not be in the best interests of the Company;

PROCEEDINGS OF DIRECTORS

91. The Directors of the Company or any committee thereof may meet at such times and in such manner and places within or outside the British Virgin Islands as the Directors may determine to be necessary or desirable and for the avoidance of doubt any one Director may call a meeting of Directors, however, the failure to satisfy this Regulation does not invalidate the meeting.
92. A Director shall be deemed to be present at a meeting of Directors if he participates by telephone or other electronic means and all Directors participating in the meeting are able to hear each other.
93. A Director shall be given not less than 3 days notice of meetings of Directors, but a meeting of Directors held without 3 days notice having been given to all Directors shall be valid if all the Directors entitled to vote at the meeting who do not attend, waive notice of the meeting; and for this purpose, the presence of a Director at the meeting shall be deemed to constitute waiver on his part. The inadvertent failure to give notice of a meeting to a Director, or the fact that a Director has not received the notice, does not invalidate the meeting.

94. A Director may by a written instrument appoint an alternate who need not be a Director and an alternate is entitled to attend meetings in the absence of the Director who appointed him and to vote or consent in the place of the Director.
95. A meeting of Directors is duly constituted for all purposes if at the commencement of the meeting there are present in person or by alternate not less than one half of the total number of Directors, unless there are only two Directors in which case the quorum shall be two.

Such a note or memorandum shall constitute sufficient evidence of such resolution for all purposes.
97. At every meeting of the Directors the chairman of the Board of Directors shall preside as chairman of the meeting. If there is no chairman of the Board of Directors or if the chairman of the Board of Directors is not present at the meeting the vice chairman of the Board of Directors shall preside. If there is no vice chairman of the Board of Directors or if the vice chairman of the Board of Directors is not present at the meeting the Directors present shall choose someone of their number to be chairman of the meeting.
98. An action that may be taken by the Directors or a committee of Directors at a meeting may also be taken by a Resolution of Directors or a committee of Directors consented to in writing or by telex, telegram, cable, facsimile or other written electronic communication by all Directors or all members of the committee, as the case may be, without the need for any notice. The consent may be in the form of counterparts, each counterpart being signed by one or more Directors. If the consent is in one or more counterparts, and the counterparts bear different dates, then the resolution shall take effect on the date upon which the last director has consented to the resolution by signed counterparts.
99. The Directors shall cause the following corporate records to be kept:
 - (a) minutes of all meetings of Directors, Shareholders, committees of Directors, committees of officers and committees of Shareholders; and

Such officers may consist of a chairman of the Board of Directors, a vice chairman of the Board of Directors, President and one or more Vice Presidents, Secretaries and Treasurers and such other officers as may from time to time be deemed desirable. Any number of offices may be held by the same person.
105. The officers shall perform such duties as shall be prescribed at the time of their appointment subject to any modification in such duties as may be prescribed thereafter by Resolution of Directors or Resolution of Shareholders, but in the absence of any specific allocation of duties it shall be the responsibility of the chairman of the Board of Directors to preside at meetings of Directors and Shareholders, the vice chairman to act in the absence of the chairman, the President to manage the day to day affairs of the Company, the Vice Presidents to act in order of seniority in the absence of the President but otherwise to perform such duties as may be delegated to them by the President, the Secretaries to maintain the Register of Shareholders, minute books and records (other than financial records) of the Company and to ensure compliance with all procedural

Any vacancy occurring in any office of the Company may be filled by Resolution of Directors.

CONFLICT OF INTERESTS

108. A Director of the Company shall forthwith after becoming aware of the fact that he is interested in a transaction entered into or to be entered into by the Company, disclose the interest to all other directors in the Company.

110. Notwithstanding the previous Regulation, a transaction entered into by the Company is not voidable by the Company if;
 - (a) the material facts of the interest of the Director in the transaction are known by the Shareholders entitled to vote at a meeting of Shareholders and the transaction is approved or ratified by a Resolution of Shareholders; or
 - (b) the Company received fair value for the transaction, and such determination of fair value is made on the basis of the information known to the Company and the interested Director at the time that the transaction was entered into.

- (a) is or was a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed proceedings, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, by reason of the fact that the person is or was a Director, an officer, agent or a liquidator of the Company; or

116. The termination of any proceedings by any judgement, order, settlement, conviction or the entering of a nolle prosequi does not, by itself, create a presumption that the Indemnifiable Person did not act honestly and in good faith and with a view to the best interests of the Company or that such person had reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful.
117. The Company may purchase and maintain insurance in relation to any person who is or was a director, officer or liquidator of the Company, or who at request of the Company is or was serving as a director, officer or liquidator of, or in any other capacity is or was acting for, another company or a partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against any liability asserted against the person and incurred by the person in that capacity, whether or not the Company has or would have had the power to indemnify the person against the liability as provided in the Articles.
