3 March 2025

Mr. Wang, Shoulei

Dear Sir,

Executive directorship

We write to confirm our appointment of your goodself as an executive director of PINE Technology Holdings Limited (the “Company”) for a term of one (1) year commencing from 3 March 2025 to 2 March 2026 (both dates inclusive), provided that either the Company or you may terminate such appointment at any time by giving at least one month’s notice in writing to the other. Your appointment as an executive director of the Company may be extended for a period as your goodself and our company agree in writing.

Under Bye-law 108 of the existing Bye-Laws (the “Bye-law(s)”) of the Company, the office of a director of the Company is liable to be vacated in the circumstances set out therein. In addition, under Bye-law 115, any director of the Company appointed by the board of directors (the “Board”) during the year shall hold office until the next following annual general meeting and further, under Bye-law 111, one-third of the directors of the Company are required to retire from office at each annual general meeting (under both circumstances, they may, however, offer themselves for re-election). Further, the Company is incorporated in Bermuda and is subject to the Companies Act 1981 of Bermuda. Under the Companies Act, the shareholders of the Company may remove any director of the Company at any general meeting.

Your ordinary remuneration is governed by Bye-law 103 and will be fixed by the shareholders at the Company’s general meetings. Pursuant to the authority given by shareholders of the Company, the Board has agreed with you the remuneration during the term of your appointment hereunder at HK$20,000.00 per month. You are recommended to seek professional advice on whether the amount of any remuneration payable to you as director of the Company is subject to Hong Kong salaries tax and, if so, to include the details of such remuneration in your salaries tax return.
